

PolyPanel is Back and in Stock

After a long wait, our best-selling and high-demand PolyPanels are in stock and ready for purchase.

Our PolyPanel system is the most elegant patio cover option we sell, offering a classy skylight look for your customer's outdoor living space. Homeowners can enjoy the natural light of their patio while being protected against inclement weather and harmful UV rays.

Available in three colors (bronze, white, clear), our PolyPanel options will bring your customers' dreams to life and create an inviting outdoor hosting space.

AS&D Updates

Road Closure

From February 7th to March 4th, access to our Pacific, WA location will be limited due to road construction on Stewart Rd.

SE. Will call is still available and customers can access the warehouse through two roads:

1. Side road through Pacific Pride Gas Station on Valentine Ave.
2. Stewart Rd. SE. (You may have to wait for a flagger to let you through)

Please feel free to call us for any additional instructions.

We're Expanding!

We have outgrown our current production facility in Pacific, WA. In early 2022, we will be moving to new a building down the road in Sumner, WA. We'll keep you updated as our move progresses, but in the meantime, continue to visit us in Pacific.

IBS 2022

With the rise in COVID cases, we have decided to withdraw from the NAHB International Builders' Show, February 2022, in Orlando, Florida.

Although we won't be able to meet you face to face, we still want to work with you on your upcoming building projects.

Contact our professional management team and we'll set up an online meeting to discuss your construction projects. We will review your drawings, and demonstrate how our systems can save you time and money.
